

Pure Hydrogen

ASX Announcement

Pure Hydrogen will no longer be a Canadian Reporter

Sydney, 20 January 2022: Australian east coast clean energy Company Pure Hydrogen Corporation Limited (ASX: PH2 or 'Pure Hydrogen') is pleased to advise that it has applied to securities regulatory authorities in British Columbia, Alberta, and Ontario for a decision that it is not a reporting issuer. Early last year the Company ceased to have its shares listed on the TSX and subsequently become an Australian Company registered with Australian Securities and Investment Commission.

If Pure Hydrogen ceases to be a reporting issuer in Canada it will not be required to file financial statements and other disclosure documents with Canadian regulatory authorities. Canadian securityholders will continue to receive all disclosure materials required under Australian securities law or ASX requirements to be delivered to Australian resident securityholders. An order by the aforementioned securities regulatory authorities granting Pure Hydrogen's application in Canada will not affect the Company's ASX listing or its reporting practices in Australia
